Housing Needs

The Housing Authority of Dayton has a difficult time competing with the other affordable housing developments within Campbell County. However, at the current time the PHA has fifty four (54) families waiting for assistance. The Housing Authority is striving to compete with the other markets within the area by modernizing the units and, therefore, offering a more marketable product. The Five-Year Action Plan attached details modernization needs of the Authority. The items budgeted are not a complete listing of the modernization needs of the Housing Authority of Dayton; however, to comply with the requests of HUD, the Housing Authority has selected the more important items needed to become more marketable.
